Research and Development Policy

RESEARCH POLICY OF GLBIMR

1 Objective & Scope:

The key objective of GLBIMR Research Cell is innovation, knowledge creation, integration & dissemination of knowledge. GLBIMR focuses on direct assimilation of research into the teaching-learning process as value addition. Keeping this view in mind, GLBIMR always tries to create, foster, inculcate and build up a vivacious research culture in various functional areas and allied disciplines of management education and research.

For this very same purpose, GLBIMR provides an outstanding opportunity and the atmosphere for Research, Consultancy, and Training in all spheres viz. action research applied research & industry-focused research.

GLBIMR emphasizes to motivate faculty members to showcase their authentic intellectual contributions at all academic forums whether State, National or International levels. For this purpose, the institute has been implementing a well-rounded research funding policy and norms.

GLBIMR research policy is focused on encouraging and exploring new frontiers of knowledge, aimed at fostering better learning experience for our teachers, students, society and country at large.

1.1 Research Publications:

1. The Faculty members are expected to publish at least 03 research papers in International Journal of repute preferably in UGC Care listed Journals, Scopus Indexed Journals or ABDC's ranked journals in a year or may get acceptance for the same. Out of these three publications the Faculty members have the choice to publish one research paper in UGC listed Journals. The faculty has to publish a minimum of 03 research papers within in 2 years of employment with GLBIMR and out of which 01 research paper preferably in B & C category Journals of ABDC ranking.
2. The Faculty members are also expected to publish one Book whether edited/ text/ reference or One monograph from a publisher of repute during the first three years of employment with GLBIMR and 02 Books of the same category (Including the previous one during the first two years) from the reputed International publishers like Routledge/Cabi/Good fellow/ Elsevier/ PHI/ Cengage / Wiley/Springer/IGI or from the publishers in the same category during the 3rd & 4th year of their employment with GLBIMR.

1.2 Academic Leaves:

The Faculty members are entitled to Academic Leaves to attend International & National Conferences/ Refresher Courses/ Orientation Courses / Research methodology workshops and will be provided financial support to attend National/ International Conferences/ FDP's/ MDP's or Research Methodology Workshops.

CHAPTER - 8

Policy on Funded Research and Consultancy

The GL Bajaj Institute of Management and Research Policy on Funded Research and Consultancy is designed to encourage its faculty and staff to

- (a) undertake externally-funded research projects and national/international consultancies and
- (b) provide their proficient services to development agencies, corporate sector, and government bodies in policy formulation, program evaluation, and project implementation.

Research projects and consultancies will provide the institute faculty and staff with opportunities to apply their professional expertise in practical contexts, derive some monetary benefits, and generate some additional resources for the development of the Institute.

1. Guidelines for Funded Research and Consultancy

1.1 Funded Research Projects

GL Bajaj Institute of Management and Research will provide internal funding support to develop proposals, prepare paper, case materials, and small studies based on short concept note with brief budget submitted to the Research Cell, GL Bajaj Institute of Management and Research. While preparing externally funded research proposals, faculty/staff time has to be a part of the budget. Faculty/staff time can be valued as twice or 1.5 times of actual gross salary, depending on faculty/staff category, salary level, project duration, and funding agency. Travel and field-based projects need to follow GL Bajaj Institute of Management and Research Policy on Travel and Allowances. The budget needs to include 10 to 15 percent overhead.

1.2 Consultancy Policy

GL Bajaj Institute of Management and Research prefers to promote institutional consultancies (i.e., consultancies undertaken through the Institute) to enhance its brand name. However, individual consultancies can also be undertaken with the formal permission of the Director, information to the Research Cell and subject to consultancy rules of the Institute.

As per GL Bajaj Institute of Management and Research Policy on Consultancy, depending on the nature of the agency, place of assignment, and staff category, the following rates (which set the minimum level) will generally apply:

S. No.	Types of Assignment	Category	Rate (Per Day)*
			International	National
01	International Agencies (Overseas Assignment)	Faculty Members/ Senior Consultant	500/-	-
		Technical Staff/ Junio Consultant	250/-	-
		Other Staff	150/-	-
02	International Agencies (Domestic Assignment)	Faculty Members/ Senior Consultant	300/-	15000/-
		Technical Staff/ Junio Consultant	150/-	10000/-
		Other Staff	100/-	10000/-

03	National Agencies (Corporate Sector)	Faculty Members/ Senior Consultant	-	10000/-
		Technical Staff/ Junio Consultant	-	5000/-
		Other Staff	-	3000/-
04	National Agencies (Government and Semi -Government Bodies)	Faculty Members/ Senior Consultant	300/-	7000/-
		Technical Staff/ Junio Consultant	150/-	3000/-
		Other Staff	100/-	2000/-

*Includes only the consultancy fee. Hospitality charges to be borne by the client and if GL Bajaj Institute of Management and Research has to incur then it will be added.

1.3.1 Incentives and Income Sharing:

For projects with faculty/staff time in budget, they can have 40 percent of their actual salary. Faculty/staff will share income from consultancies on a 60:40 basis for (a) and 70:30 for (b), (c), and (d). For lump sum/monthly consultancy income, income sharing or its exemption can be decided by the Director and the Research Committee considering amount, duration, work nature, and other aspects.

1.3.2 Research-Consultancy Relationship:

For creating a strong functional linkage between research and consultancy, GL Bajaj Institute of Management and Research will use a major part of the income from funded research and consultancy for promoting faculty research and publications through the creation of a strong research support system, research associates/assistants and related facilities.

1.3.3 Exclusions:

The Director, GL Bajaj Institute of Management and Research can decide on any exceptions to the above rules or on other aspects, depending on case by case basis.

1.4 Policy For Travel And Allowances

The GL Bajaj Institute of Management and Research Policy for Travel and Allowances aims to provide safe, comfortable, and reasonable travel and allow the faculty members, staff, and others functionally or operationally associated with the Institute so as to enable them to perform their official functions and duties in a more efficient, timely, and cost-effective manner.

2. Guidelines for Travel and Allowances

2.1 Travel Approval and Claim (Academic Conferences - International)

Faculty members who are presenting papers in International Conferences outside India are eligible to claim up to a maximum of 1 Lakhs INR every second year.

Category	Maximum Allowance
Air Travel (By Economy Class/All Airlines)	INR 1,00,000
Accommodation	INR 50,000
Conference registration	INR 20,000

The total expenditure claim on International cannot exceed 1 Lakhs INR every other year. The faculty members are eligible for the following expenditure claim for National conferences.

2.2 Travel Approval and Claim (Academic Conferences - National)

CHAPTER - 10

Guidelines for Seed Money Project Grants for Faculty

1. PREAMBLE:

Research development is a key component of a successful business school. Additionally, this allows both students and faculty to follow the learning process and outcomes in real life by solving problems in various disciplines, such as Business Studies, Basic Science, Applied Science, Social Science, Law, etc. Through this process, faculty can incorporate learning outcomes into their classroom teaching and publish their work in good international/national journals, patents, and other forms of creative expression. The purpose of seed money grants is to facilitate further funding from industry or government funding agencies for research and consulting projects. Young and talented faculty members will be given preference. The GLBIMR is pleased to extend the Seed Money Project Grants for faculty members w.e.f. May 1, 2020.

2. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

All faculty members appointed to the level of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, or Professor against the permanent post in the PGDM department following the specific procedures of the Institute will be eligible for financial support under the scheme. Faculty members should normally have completed at least a year of service at the GLBIMR before applying for a research grant. In exceptional cases, however, a shorter period of service can also be considered based on the quality of the project. When applying for a research grant in Business Studies, Basic Science, Applied Science, Social Science, or Law, faculty must have a Ph.D. degree or substantial research work (published articles in reputed journals). Some technology areas may be exempt from this requirement. The faculty member applying for the grant is the sole Principal Investigator (PI).

3. BUDGET:

1. Normally, the seed money project grants up to Rs 1 lac is approved by the management. The amount may vary from time to time as per the directions of the management. On the recommendation of an external subject expert, the Director may approve a higher amount in exceptional cases. Research Project Development Committee (RPDC) acceptance letters will be sent out by the Registrar, based on the merits of the proposal after evaluation by the blind review committee
2. The PI may travel anywhere in India for company visits, collaborating partner institutional visits, field study, data collection, material procurement and other project related activities. However, travel expenses are subject to Institute norms. Travel expenses will be limited to 20 percent of the total budget.
3. All travel and sundry expenses shall be with prior approval of the Director.
4. The request for the project proposal has to be submitted to the Registrar as per the proposal format (Annexure-I).
5. This scheme not extended to book writing or any similar project.
6. The project proposal submitted by the faculty members is scrutinized thoroughly by the external subject expert/blind review.

4. PROPOSAL FORMAT:

The proposal format should largely follow the format of any funding agency (e.g. UGC, DST, VGST, DSIR, ICSSR, BRAC, others) targeted for full external grant application using the outcome of the seed money project as foundation. For Details see Annexure-I.

5. DURATION OF THE PROJECT:

The duration of the project may be six months. However, it may extend upto 18 months.

6. REVIEW AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE SEED MONEY PROJECT PROPOSAL:

The External subject expert (blind review) will review the proposal for its feasibility and acceptance. Based on the recommendations by the subject external member, the project will be accepted/rejected. The Director will approve/reject the project on the recommendation of the external subject expert. The letter of approval/rejection of the project proposal will be issued to the Principal Investigator by the Registrar clearly mentioning feedback/ suggestions given by the external subject expert in case of approval/ rejection.

7. RESEARCH PROJECT DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE (RPDC):

The mandate of the RPDC, appointed by the Registrar in consultation with the Director is to provide oversight and technical and managerial support to the PI in executing the proposal. The RPDC will consist of the following:

Director (Or Director's nominee) -	Chairperson
Registrar -	Member
IQAC Director -	Member
Program Chairperson -	Member
Head of Research Cell -	Member Secretary

The PI must submit a Progress Report (Annexure-II) to the RPDC every six months after approval. When the progress/presentation is found to be unsatisfactory, the project could be terminated prematurely. The faculty member must submit a detailed report containing a minimum of two research articles published in UGC care list journals with good impact factor (journals without article processing fees/page charges), the Utilization Certificate, and a presentation of the findings to the RPDC within one month of the scheduled completion date. Research outcomes can be used to develop proposals for further research to be submitted to external funding agencies.

8. PROCEDURE FOR RELEASE OF GRANT:

Administrative approval is issued to the selected projects. For the smooth implementation of the project all the Principal Investigators procure necessary items by taking prior approval from the concerned authorities as per the Institute's rules. Further, quotations/bills must be in the name of "The Registrar, GLBIMR".

9. OUTCOME OF THE RESEARCH PROJECT:

The outcome of the project should lead to a minimum of two publications (out of which one should be published + another proof of communication) in UGC CARE list journals (journal should not levy any article processing charges/paid charges). The objective of seed money grant is to facilitate further financial support from industry or government funding agencies related to research and consultancy assignments.

10. OTHER CONSIDERATIONS:

1. Unless extension is sought explicitly, the project is assumed to have been completed on the termination date specified, and no further expenses/extension shall be permitted.
2. The PI is responsible for ensuring that the expenses are within the budget. between budget heads within the same overall budget should be approved by the concerned authorities of the Institute. Upon completion of the project, a final statement of expenses and variance report duly certified by the PI is prepared by the finance section within one month of the completion of project. Any unaccounted expenses shall be adjusted as personal.
3. Fresh Research project would be sanctioned only after the successful completion of the previous project. The research outcomes are to be documented (experimental setup, working paper, case study, or submission of article to a Scopus/ Web of Science indexed journal for review/publication, or patent application filed) and the expenses are to be audited and settled.
4. Stock Register should be maintained in the departmental office for the purchase of books/journals/software(s)/chemicals etc.
5. Utilization Certificate has to be certified by the internal auditor of GLBIMR.
